

MCC Coronavirus (COVID-19) Statement

Updated: August 9, 2021

The global coronavirus outbreak (COVID-19) is impacting global commerce, and we are assessing the full business impact to MCC and our supply chain. We continue to monitor the situation and are taking appropriate steps to safeguard our employees and customers.

Our priority is to protect our supply chain and customers. We are in constant communication with our suppliers, customers, logistics service providers, and global port authorities to monitor the situation and take appropriate action as needed.

California FTZ Warehouse (US)
No impact
Yangzhou Manufacturing Campus (China)
Our manufacturing campus is still operating at reduced capacity. The company is currently implementing some preventive measures in accordance with government requirements to curb the spread of the coronavirus. These measures follow the guidance of local health government agencies and business continuity experts, minimize contact between our employees, and comply with social distancing and hygiene best practices.
Sihong Manufacturing Campus (China)
No impact
Taiwan Warehouse (Taiwan)
No impact

Please ask your MCC Sales Representative for information specific to your account. We will continue to provide updates as the situation evolves and more information becomes available.

Eric Schneider
 Director of Operations

Micro Commercial Components